

22 February 1982

Dr. Frank W. Hale, Jr.
Vice Provost for Minority Affairs
The Ohio State University
203 Administration Building
Columbus, Ohio 43211

Dear Dr. Hale:

You have our deep appreciation for taking the time to come down and talk to us during Black History Month. Your message was profound, though presented in a light and, at times, humorous fashion. All of us that had the privilege of hearing it are far better today because of it.

We well realize the trip from Columbus is not the easiest in the world and it was very kind of you to squeeze us into your very busy schedule.

Parenthetically, the voice of Wintley Phipps is without equal and it was a pleasant surprise to be able to enjoy the depth of his talent.

The Director joins me in expressing our gratitude and wishing you the very best of luck.

Sincerely,

/s/

John N. McMahon
Executive Director